

ABOUT US

Tarps & Tie-Downs manufactures high-quality rmu and kiosk covers. We believe in order to manufacture quality covers, it must begin with high quality materials. We use some of the industry's most durable materials, from the cover material down to the stitching thread. It is just as important to have a skilled team of experts who know how to design and manufacture each cover according to our customers' specifications. Our goal is simple: Satisfy each customer with the highest quality covers that meet or exceed their expectations and needs.
